Hi Rita:

I have confirmed that your calculation as to your clients' response deadline is correct. Thank you for the lesson on procedure (with no sarcasm intended). 9/26 works. I hope that in the event we deem a second amendment necessary based on what is provided in discovery, you will extend me the same courtesy.

Best,

Please see the calculation below. Per this can we agree to the extension of 9/26?

Per the vendor:

Thank you for forwarding the email chain. The deadline is not a straight 33-day count. Per FRCP 6(d), the additional 3 days are not added under after the period would otherwise expire under FRCP 6(a). Thirty days after 8/8/19 falls on Saturday, 9/7/19. Per FRCP 6(a)(a)(C), when a period is stated in days, the period continues to run until the end of the next day that is not a weekend or holiday. This means the initial 30-day calculation does not expire until Monday, 9/9/19. Three days after that falls as 9/12/19.

Hope that helps. Thanks, ~Michele

Hello,

Per the Attorney, the deadline to respond to discovery in Federal Court should be 30 days plus 3 days for mail service. The RFP was mail served on 8/8/19, 33 days from that is 9/10/19, however eDockets is calculating the deadline as 9/12/19. Please advise.
